June was a challenging month and the Fund declined -4.7% (Benchmark -4.7%).

Positive contributors included pharmaceutical company, Bristol-Myers Squibb (+2.8%), which demonstrated positive progress with its drug development pipeline, a key tenet of our investment thesis. Its defensive cashflows, generated independent of broader macroeconomic themes, are attractive in this environment. Financial exchange, CME Group (+3.5%) rebounded after a softer May.

Detractors included HCA Healthcare (-19.9%) which is experiencing a challenging environment as Covid admissions decline and regular patient volumes slowly recover. Profits are pressured by higher labour costs to attract temporary staff and retain permanent employees. We opportunistically increased our position as we expect these costs to be passed on to payers in 2023 & 2024, driving a positive revaluation of the shares.

Wyndham Hotels (-17.6%) fell on increased fears about the resilience of US travel. We reduced our position in May but expect the stock to perform well should fears of a recession ease. Wyndham's asset light franchise model and strong development pipeline positions it well for future profit growth not reflected in the stock price today.

Volatile equity markets may persist with moderating earnings growth, inflation, central bank tightening and the ongoing pandemic. Uncertainty creates opportunity, and we continue to focus on attractively valued, quality companies with idiosyncratic drivers of investment returns.
